Every Company/Close Corporation which conducts business or has an office in the Republic must, within one month from the commencement of business operations or acquisition of an office, for the purposes of section 101 of the Income Tax Act, appoint a representative as the Public Officer of the Company/Close Corporation. The name of the representative and his/her position in the Company/Close Corporation must be furnished to the Receiver of Revenue of the district in which the Company/Close Corporation has its registered office, for approval. The representative must be a responsible officer of the Company/Close Corporation (for example director, manager, senior member, secretary, etc.) and such office must constantly be kept filled by the Company/Close Corporation.

Requirement to appoint a place at which notices or other documents can be served or delivered

In terms of section 101 of the Income Tax Act, every Company/Close Corporation must, within one month from the commencement of business operations or acquisition of an office, appoint a place in the Republic to be approved by the Receiver of Revenue, at which any notices or instruments under this Act, affecting the Company/Close Corporation may be served or delivered. (A post box number is not an adequate address.)

If a change of Public Officer or place for service or delivery of notices occurs, this office must be notified within 14 days of such change(s).

Requirements in respect of any prospectus registered with the registrar of companies

In terms of section 70(5) of the Income Tax Act, every Company/Close Corporation must, file with the Receiver of Revenue a copy of any prospectus proposed to be issued by it, within 30 days of registration by SACRO.

Thank you for complying with the requirements of section 101 of the Income Tax Act.

Provisional taxpayer

In terms of paragraph 1 of the Fourth Schedule to the Income Tax Act the Company/Close Corporation is regarded as a provisional taxpayer. The Company/Close Corporation is required to make payments of provisional tax as from the 2002 year of assessment.
